

FEBRUARY 8, 1837.

Read twice, and committed to the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union.

Mr. E. WHITTLESEY, from the Committee of Claims, reported the following bill:

A BILL

Providing for paying three companies of militia, in the State of Indiana, called into the service of the United States.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That 3 there be paid, on the requisition of the Secretary of War, out of 4 any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, seven 5 hundred and eighty-five dollars and seventy-five cents, for pay-6 ing three companies of Indiana militia, called into the service of 7 the United States by Colonel Ewing on the twenty-fifth of Sep-
8 tember, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, on the re-9 quisition of A. C. Pepper, Indian agent at Logansport, for the 10 purpose of protecting certain Indians assembled to receive their 11 annuities, and to protect other persons necessarily employed rela-
12 tive to said annuities; and that the further sum of one hundred 13 and three dollars and eighty-seven cents be, in like manner, ap-14 propriated, for paying for ammunition delivered to said militia, 15 and for expenses of expresses in calling out said militia, and for other expenses legally incurred.
